PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 4th July, 1963

SUBJECT:—Re-shipment of Cargoes, shipped per S. S. 'Emilia' of Kulkundis Lines Ltd. Stranded at New York.

No. 72-ITC(PN)/63.—It has been reported that certain consignments covered by valid licences were shipped in time from U.S.A. to India per S. S. 'Emilia' which was stranded at New York.

2. The consignees of the Cargoes shipped per S. S. 'Emilia' to India have now been informed that the Cargo on board S. S. 'Emilia' is being unloaded and re-forwarded to India in other vessels. In this connection it has been pointed out that the licences against which the consignments in question had been shipped have either expired or due to expire shortly and it is, therefore, apprehended that the consignees in India may face difficulties at the time of clearance of the consignments which have been re-forwarded in other vessels.

3. With a view to obviate these difficulties it has been decided that the Cargoes originally shipped per S. S. 'Emilia' against valid licences and which have been unloaded and reshipped on different steamers under fresh bills of lading may be allowed clearance against the import licences even though the validity period of such licences has expired.

D. R. SUNDARAM,
Chief Controller of Imports and Exports.
